MEMORANDUM FOR: General Carter
DD/I

Mr. McCone wants General Carter to call General LeMay to offer briefing for General Power on behalf of DCI. Mr. Cline is to represent DCI, but Mr. McCone wants to pin down fact that briefing is for SAC Commander, not his troops. They will, of course, attend.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT : Briefing of General Thomas S. Power, Commanding General, Strategic Air Command,
on NIE 11-8-62.

1. This memorandum requests your action in paragraph four.
2. In accordance with your wishes, a team of intelligence officers will travel to Headquarters, Strategic Air Command to brief General Thomas S. Power and selected officers of his staff on NIE 11-8-62 during the week of 16 July, subject to availability of the complete text of the Estimate.

3. It is proposed that the following Agency officers make the trip together with an officer from the Defense Intelligence Agency:

Dr. Ray S. Cline - Deputy Director (Intelligence)

[] - Board of National Estimates

[] - Office of National Estimates

[] - Office of Research and Reports

4. It is suggested that you advise General Power of your willingness to send a group to brief him on the Estimate before we proceed with arrangements for the trip. General Carter or I probably should inform Major General Breitweiser that you plan to contact General Power for this purpose.

[redacted]

I talked to [redacted] who thought well of the idea and will lay it on directly with Powers - he saw no need to contact Helms and I agree - Joe will insure that Powers will be there - working on latter part next week - say 19th or 20th. I have alerted Cline who will alert ONE - SAC
attn sticks by their estimates
